

Polling Methodological note – March 2019

The Kantar TNS Research Express Online Omnibus interviewed a representative sample of 1,152 adults in Great Britain between the 7th and 11th March 2019. All interviews were conducted as online self-completion. The Kantar TNS Research Express uses the Lightspeed access panel as its sample source.

The data was weighted to match population totals for age, gender, working status, 2017 General Election voting patterns, 2016 EU referendum voting patterns, education, region, and likelihood to vote in the next General Election. Further details on the weighting are given on page three.

Voting intentions

The voting intention figures provided aim to show the current political opinion of the nation rather than to accurately predict the outcome of the next General Election.

Uncertainty

All polls are subject to a wide range of potential sources of error. On the basis of the historical record of the polls at recent general elections, there is a 9 in 10 chance that the true value of a party's support lies within 4 points of the estimates provided by this poll, and a 2 in 3 chance that they lie within 2 points.

Sampling variance

We have estimated the sampling variation in our voting intention estimates using the methodology proposed by Kuha and Sturgis (2017<sup>1</sup>). Bootstrap resampling was used to draw fifty sets of respondents from the achieved sample (in a way which matched the quota sampling design), each of these new samples was weighted and we then used the distribution of estimates (from the resamples) to calculate margins of error (the range containing all but the two most extreme resample results).

- Conservative Party = 37.9% - 42.8%
- Labour Party = 28.4% - 35.0%
- Conservative lead over Labour = +3.4%pts to +15.0%pts

Brexit Confidence Index

Respondents were asked about the impact (positive, negative, no effect) they expect Brexit to have on the following areas:

- the price of things they buy
- the standard of care in the NHS
- the standard of schools where you live
- the mix of people in their local area
- your job and career opportunities

The “Brexit Confidence Index” is a summary of the public mood across these different areas.

The index is calculated by subtracting the proportion who think there will be at least some negative effects due to Brexit and no positive effects from the proportion that think that there will be at least some positive effects due to Brexit and no negative effects.

Wales - Other	<0.5%	<0.5%
Wales - No vote	1%	2%

*An imputed response is given for those that prefer not to say who they voted for in the 2017 General Election.

Likelihood to Vote in General Election

We have estimated the likelihood that each respondent will vote in the next General Election. This value is based on respondents' stated intention to vote, their age and whether they voted in the last general election. The expected population turnout has been included as a population total in the weighting matrix. This turnout has been estimated based on the relationship between sample and population turnout rates in the 2017 general election.

	Unweighted percentage	Weighted percentage
Estimated Voting Age Population turnout if General Election were to be held tomorrow	82%	57%

The model was developed using data from respondents that participated in Kantar Public polls immediately prior to the 2017 general election and immediately after the election.
